MEMBERS SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

Blankney Golf Club encourages members to follow our Social Media sites and to share club related content within their personal social networks. Members may like to comment or express their personal thoughts on updates or posts on our Social Media sites but are asked to adhere to the following conditions of use.

When associating yourself with Blankney Golf Club Social Media sites you may not:

- Post photos that may compromise the professionalism and reputation of the Club.
- Use hostile or defamatory language.
- Disclose private or confidential information about the Club, its members, guests, suppliers or employees.
- Pass judgement on other golf clubs or associations.
- Make any comments about the Club's employees that are derogatory in nature.
- When a member discloses that they are attached to Blankney Golf Club they must ensure that any views expressed are theirs alone and do not represent the views of Blankney Golf Club.

When associating yourself with Blankney Golf Club Social Media sites you are expected to contact the Club immediately if there is any information that may be perceived as defamatory or contentious to Blankney Golf Club. If in doubt contact the Club for advice.

The Club maintains the right to monitor club related member activity in social networks and reserves the right to remove any information that does not comply with the above.

Should a Member be found to be in breach of this policy then this will be referred for Disciplinary Action which may result in a temporary ban from the Course or, in extreme cases, revoking of membership.
